Dear Parents/Carers,

At the end of another busy term, much of which is captured in The Bridge magazine that is coming into your homes and parishes this weekend, I want to thank you for supporting the fantastic opportunities open to pupils at St Chad's.

We are looking forward to beginning a brand new year, and to taking on new opportunities in 2017.

One opportunity is that supported by the Diocese of Shrewsbury and Chester, and in line with government policy St Chad's will be moving forward on its journey of continuous improvement by pursuing conversion to academy status. This is a move that all other high schools in Runcorn have already undertaken.

More information will be available in the new year. I shall keep you informed at every stage as you will not notice any change to the daily operation of the school, or our focus of providing the best education and opportunities for your child.

On behalf of all your governors I wish you a holy and restful Christmas.

Thank you for your continued support.

Janet Lawrence
