Full-Time -Term-Time only

Salary: HBC 5 - £17,065.00 - £18,715.00 (Based on 37 Hours Per Week). Part-Time may be considered

The Governors of St Chad's Joint-Church School are seeking a committed, practising Catholic to take up the role of School Chaplain leading in the development of Chaplaincy working with our Anglican Chaplain. The successful applicant will enhance the spiritual, liturgical and prayer life of the school and be responsible for organising a full programme of activities. The successful candidate will make a significant contribution to the faith journey of every member of our school community and form links with the wider community.

St Chad's is a community driven by Christian values of Compassion, Co-operation, Stewardship, Respect and Honourable Purpose. Ofsted described students as 'shining lights' for the philosophy of 'faith in God, faith in ability and faith in each other' and our joint faith Section 48 inspection (2016) reports that 'This is a good school with outstanding features that lives out its mission statement.'
