Dear parents/carers,

You may have heard the sad news that former Headteacher, Arthur Graley passed away last week. Mr Graley was Headteacher at St Chad's from September 1994 until July 2007. Mr Graley was responsible for securing the funding for building projects for state-of-the-art facilities and for the joint-faith status of the school. Students are still benefitting from his hard work and dedication today.

As a mark of respect and to ensure colleagues can attend his funeral, governors have agreed to closing the school for the afternoon of the 4th July. School will close for all pupils at 12pm. Any pupils eligible for a free school meal should inform their form tutor and a packed lunch will be available.

The chapel at school will remain open during the afternoon of the 4th July for any member of our community who cannot attend the funeral.

Yours faithfully,

Mr M Paziuk BSc (Hons) MA NPQH
