All members of St. Chad's community have equal value.

Every pupil and member of staff will be helped to achieve personal fulfilment and excellence.

At St. Chad's, pupils are cared for and parents are made welcome.

St. Chad's will encourage a spirit of friendship and partnership, particularly with home parishes and the wider community, which will make us sensitive to the needs, beliefs and culture of others.

Introduction

The SEND/Inclusion Policy has been devised with regard to the new Code of Practice for pupils with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities (SEND) which came into effect on September 1st 2014. The Children and Families Act of 2014 puts children, young people and their parents at the centre of decision making, giving them access to opportunities and more choice over the support they receive.

This is reflected in the Local Offer.

Definition of Special Educational Needs.

The 1996 Education Act provided a legal definition of special educational needs as 'A child has special educational needs if he or she has a learning difficulty which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her.'

A learning difficulty means that the student either

- Has significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of children of the same age.

Or

- Has a disability which prevents or hinders them from making use of educational facilities which are provided for children of the same age in a mainstream school.

The new Code of Practice 2014 identifies four areas of special educational need.

- Communication and Interaction. Children and young people who have difficulties communicating with others. This would include children with speech, language and communication needs as well as children with difficulties on the Autistic Spectrum.
- Cognition and Learning. Children and young people who learn at a slower pace than their peers even with appropriate differentiation. This would include children with moderate learning difficulties and specific learning difficulties such as dyslexia or dyscalculia.
- Social, Emotional and Mental Health Difficulties. Children and young people with social and emotional and mental health difficulties may not be able to make full use of the educational opportunities available to them for a variety of reasons. . They can present as withdrawn, disruptive, challenging, anxious or depressed. This would also include children with disorders such as attention deficit disorder and attachment disorder.
- Sensory and Physical Needs. Children and young people who require specialist provision because they have a physical or sensory difficulty. This would include children with a visual or hearing impairment.

Aim of the School's SEND/Inclusion Policy

To ensure that all students feel safe, secure and welcomed in St Chad's High School and have every opportunity to be included in all aspects of school life.

Objectives of the School's SEND/Inclusion Policy

The school uses the local authority strategy for the inclusion of pupils with SEND as set out below

- To ensure the SEND Code of Practice 2014 and the Disability and Discrimination Act 1995 are implemented effectively across the school.

- To ensure all pupils with SEND have access to a broad and balanced curriculum.
- To ensure all teachers seek to improve levels of educational achievement and attainment for all pupils with SEND.
- To work in partnership with children or young people and their parents in meeting the needs of students with SEND.
- To liaise with outside agencies to secure specialist assessment or provision if required.

Policy into Practice

There are three key activities that must be addressed if our policy is to be translated into effective practice:

1. Identification and Assessment of Need: we must have agreed procedures and strategies to identify the different the needs of pupils so that we can begin to cater for them at the earliest opportunity.
2. Provision of Teaching/Learning and Support Strategies: these must be planned in response to the identification of needs.
3. Monitoring/Evaluation of Provision: we must continuously review practice to ensure that programmes are effective in improving pupil performance and in removing obstacles to learning and progress.

The following procedures will be in place from September 2014:

1. Identification and assessment of need

The following data is currently collated for all pupils:

KS2 SATs Scores	:	English, Maths .
CATS Tests	:	Autumn Term of Y7
WRAT Reading Accuracy Test:		Autumn Term of Year 7.
Other tests/assessments	:	Reading / Spelling assessments for target pupils.

KS2 SATS Scores, end of year targets and progress data will be available on SIMS and SISRA. Pupils with Statements/ Education Health Care Plans will be identified by the SENCO and detailed information/ Pen Portraits will be provided for all staff. Pupils who will need SEN Support will be identified by the SENCO and recorded on SIMS. Individual Support Plans for these pupils will be available on SIMS.

Pupils with emotional and behavioural difficulties will be identified initially by the Transition Mentor following discussion with primary school staff. Information will be distributed to all staff by the SENCO and appropriate advice offered to colleagues where necessary. The progress of these pupils will be carefully monitored by PPC s and the SENCO. Some of these pupils may be allocated Learning Mentor support or access to the School Counsellor. 2. Individual teachers are responsible for the teaching programme, tracking of progress and identification of further support when necessary.
3. Departments should also identify basic skills that need to be developed to facilitate success in the subject i.e. presentation skills, speaking and listening skills, graphical skills.
4. Pupil progress records on SISRA should indicate clearly how well pupils are progressing in relation to targets.
